

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for others, and each of these attributes can be applied to Diane Schultz; and,

Whereas, Diane has given 37 years of dedicated service to the state of South Dakota with both the Department of Labor and Regulation and the Department of Education; and,

Whereas, Diane began in teacher placement for the Department of Labor and the Department of Education for over 10 years. She then moved to the Department of Labor and Regulation Fiscal Department where she spent the majority of her service to South Dakota as a claims clerk. In the last 8 years, she has been an Unemployment Insurance Claims Specialist for the Department of Labor and Regulation; and,

Whereas, Diane will be missed for her outstanding service, her ability to handle difficult claimant calls, and her loyalty. She has been a valuable asset to those fortunate enough to work with her; and,

Whereas, Diane plans to spend her retirement with her husband, John, three children, and eight grandchildren. She will enjoy watching her granddaughter, Sammy, play college basketball for William Penn University and enjoy visits with her brother from Australia; and,

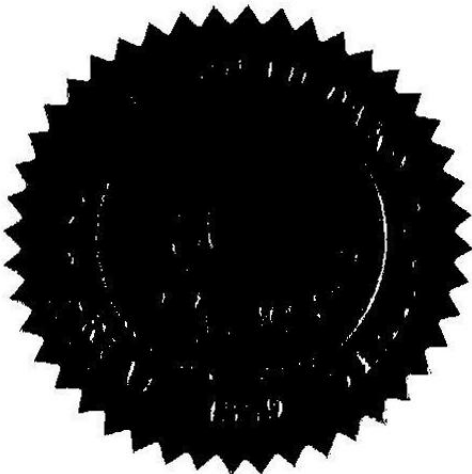

Whereas, On August 23, 2012, Diane will retire from the Department of Labor and Regulation with 37 years of service; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper to honor this outstanding South Dakotan on the occasion of her retirement:

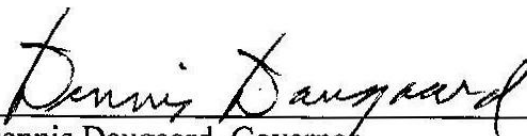

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim August 23, 2012, as in South Dakota, and I join her family, friends, and colleagues in offering her best wishes for an enjoyable retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fifteenth Day of August in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Twelve.

Dennis Daugaard, Governor

Attest:

Jason M. Gant, Secretary of State
